Adjusted on: 6/23 30-Year Bonds: There's nothing to change...The upside key is the area of 178.14-26; 174.28 is the key on the downside....MAYBE an extension of the week's range follows-thru? 10-Year Notes: The bold prices are the keys...can the market extend the week high/low to put some pressure on one or the other? 5-Year Notes: Nine sessions between 125.21-125.09_7...we need to see that range get extended in order to generate any new possibilities; that said, it's better to favor the bulls at the week high.... S&P500: Tough to set a pivot here....3146.25 is "last resistance" as 3156.25 and 3177 both fit "target" criteria...be careful buying early below the out.
